Additional Requirements:
All Loans

- Change of Circumstance: The appraisal damage certification requirement following a disaster does qualify as a changed circumstance under TILA-RESPA Integrated Disclosure Rule, allowing A&D Mortgage to pass the cost to the borrower. Within three (3) business days of the date it becomes known that an appraisal certification will need to be ordered, the lender is required to issue the borrower a revised Loan Estimate or Closing Disclosure with the appraisal certification fee added in Section B.

Conventional/Jumbo

- All inspections must indicate the property has not sustained any damage from the disaster (i.e., flood, tornado/wind, or fire damage)
- All inspections must include exterior photographs, and a statement on the neighborhood conditions as they relate to damage from the disaster

FHA Loans

- All inspections by appraisers should attempt to be completed by the original appraiser
- All inspections must include interior and exterior photographs, and a statement on the neighborhood conditions as they relate to damage from the disaster
- If property damage is identified, then:
 - If damage exists but is below $5,000 and property is habitable complete repairs or establish repair escrow prior to funding (in general A&D Mortgage does not allow escrow holdback for repairs)
 - If damage exists and is above $5,000 or the property is not habitable, do not close until repairs are completed (cannot be an escrow holdback) and property inspected with interior/exterior photographs
 - If property damage is structural or complex, a qualified third party must inspect the damages and provide evidence that repairs have been completed satisfactorily prior to closing
 - If required by local jurisdictions, obtain copies building permits, inspections and occupancy certificate
